

AKIBA BOOKSTORE

Book Signing and Submission Policy

Thank you for your interest in AKIBA Bookstore. AKIBA is a Christian and African centered book and gift store dedicated to offering the highest quality of written work. For over ten years, we have provided our customers with Christian and African-centered material. We look for creative expression and cultural enlightenment that may otherwise not have an outlet. AKIBA welcomes submissions of quality and commercial fiction and non-fiction, focusing on African American themes by published and first-time authors. In submitting your materials for consideration, your proposal should include:

- A single spaced one page query letter including:
 - Contact information.
 - Genre (Theological, Christian, Mainstream, African-Centered, Children's, Young Adult, etc.)
 - Title and length of book.
 - One paragraph synopsis about book.
 - One paragraph about, or any promotional materials associated with, the author and marketing of the book.
- Please remember that we are a provider of Christian, Theological, and African-centered materials, thus your work should reflect that.
- A copy of the book
 - Materials will not be returned
- 1 SASE for our response.
- Dates available if not local. (For signings only)

Send proposal to:

Media Operations Manager -FV
AKIBA BOOKSTORE
400 West 95th Street
Chicago, IL 60628

WE WILL ONLY ACCEPT SUBMISSIONS THAT ADHERE TO THESE GUIDELINES.

Once your submission has been mailed, allow 60 business days for a written response. Please be advised that this document by no means should be considered a commitment agreement.

Our staff will not accept telephone calls regarding the status or review of a submission.